

POLITICAL EDUCATION
&
SKILLSHARE
WEEKEND

SAT - SUN, MAY 30 - 31 | 10:30AM - 5:30PM
ADDLESTONE LIBRARY | 205 CALHOUN STREET

Calling all local activists, grassroots ruckus raisers, liberation seekers, and grant-funded change makers: Girls Rock Charleston! organizers are excited to invite you to our first-ever event dedicated to community building, political education, and skill sharing.

The goal of this weekend is two-fold: First, we want to make space for leaders and shakers in the Charleston area to discuss the work they do to uplift young people in our communities (especially girls, youth of color, LGBTQ youth, youth with disabilities, and/or low-income youth) and provide an opportunity for those organizations and individuals to build out their work, together. This goal also includes providing space for discussions about the internal workings of organizations in Charleston and potential problems we all face, such as space, funding, and other resources.

Second, we want to facilitate much-needed political education for new organizers in Charleston. We hope to work together with other organizations during this skillshare weekend to provide the valuable feminist and anti-racist political education that is needed to develop strong social justice leaders in Charleston.

Come learn and build power through workshops from local educators, Black Lives Matter members, queer activists, community organizers, non-profit leaders, and many more. Lunch is provided free of charge, and child care is available.
